October 3/1918

Dear Sir Robert,

On behalf of the Canadian Club of London I am directed to extend to you their very hearty invitation to be their guest at a luncheon, at a date suiting your convenience, and give an address on your observations in the old land during the past summer.

I may say that the Executive of the London Canadian Club is most desirous of having you come to London and should such be possible would be glad to have a date for the earliest possible occasion. Will you give this your best consideration.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Landon:

I shall be glad to go to London to speak at the Canadian Club as you request. You say nothing in your letter as to what day of the week you meet on. How would some day in the week beginning November 11th suit you ? Wednesday and Thursday of that week are engaged. I might also go for you on Friday, the 25th of October, if you could arrange your time so that I could leave here on the Friday morning.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Sir Robert Falconer ,

Toronto , Ont.,

Dear Sir Robert ,

I regret that on account of the outbreak of influenza in this city we were unable to take advantage of the dates you offered us as convenient to come to London and address the Canadian Club . In wiring you a couple of days ago it was with the thought that you might have a date open next week . I have your reply stating that you are to go to New York.

Will it be possible to give us any date for a noon luncheon during December. If so , arrangements can probably be made without delay . The influenza outbreak has broken into our fall program seriously but from now on probably conditions will be all right .

Yours very truly ,

Fred Landon.
